

OMM FRANCE 2012

Ellie Salisbury & Adrian Moir finished 4th overall, 1st British pair, at the OMM France Mountain Marathon on the 1st & 2nd September at Avoriaz, in the Portes du Soleil.

The first snow of the season fell on our training run on Friday 31st, settling above 1800m, & I began to think I shouldn't have bothered packing the sun cream!! The high day 1 controls were in the clag above the snowline at -8 degrees, but by Saturday afternoon, just as Chris Near was finishing his shortened TMB race, the sun was shining, & the Alps were at their best.....!! (Sorry Chris!).
